

DECLARATION OF PLAGIARISM

1. I know that plagiarism means taking and using the ideas, writings, works or inventions of another as if they were one's own.
2. I know that plagiarism not only includes verbatim copying, but also the extensive use of another person's ideas without proper acknowledgement (which includes the proper use of quotation marks). I know that plagiarism covers this sort of use of material found in textual sources and from the Internet.
3. I acknowledge and understand that plagiarism is wrong.
4. I understand that my research must be accurately referenced. I have followed the rules and conventions concerning referencing, citation and the use of quotations as set out in the Plagiarism Guide.
5. This paper is my own work, or my group's own unique group paper. I acknowledge that copying someone else's work or part of it, is wrong, and that submitting identical work to others constitutes a form of plagiarism.
6. I have not allowed, nor I will in the future allow, anyone to copy my work with the intention of passing it off as their own work.
7. As a sanction if there is any plagiarism in all or part of the paper I make, I am willing to obey the EMITTER Journal's rules to cancel the publication of my work.
